FOREWORD

THE story of a year at college is difficult to tell. Each student remembers something a little different from anything that his fellow-students recall.

Many things happened to all of us who attended Lenoir Rhyne during the year ending June, 1942. All of our activities, however, centered themselves around our College. In these pages we hope to perpetuate the memories which all of us hold dear.

Some of the events of the year have been important, some of little significance. We want to see this year in retrospect as a warm and living period of a memorable interval in our lives. We want this to be college life from the student's point of view. For our theme—if theme there is—we have chosen THIS YEAR AT LENOIR RHYNE.

We hope that within the covers of this book we have caught some of the incidents that typified our life as Lenoir Rhyne students, September, 1941 - June, 1942.

DEDICATION

DURING our four years at Lenoir Rhyne we have been drawn peculiarly close to one faculty member—one who has himself been here just four years. We have found in Dr. Greenholt a genial companion in study, a fascinating idealist, an enthusiastic scholar, a sincere friend and a tolerant Christian gentleman. In acknowledgment of our gratitude we dedicate the 1942 HACAWA to....

In Memoriam

ELLIS TODD GARRISON

AUGUST 6, 1920

DECEMBER 22, 1941

Of cheerful mien and happy disposition, friendly toward everyone and a friend of all, dependable and coöperative, Ellis was a faithful member of the Lenoir Rhyne band as a student, continuing in his place as first trumpeter for the three years since he left college to work in Hickory and serving as band president last year.

His spirit of neighborliness will long be remembered as an outstanding example of the love of Christ in human hearts.

THIS YEAR AT LENOIR RHYNE

Snow brightened the campus . . . and people's spirits . . . The shower room — social center of the boys' dorm . . . Students went to chapel on occasion . . . Library was center of activity (and study) during the day . . . Sophomores gave freshmen free haircuts.

LIFE WENT ON MUCH AS USUAL...

Happy couples courted on the front of the Ad Building . . . Serious work went on in science labs, both day and night . . . Occasional dances spiced the social life of the campus . . . Inevitable "shirt-tail parades" came during Freshman Week.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Pat, have you ever found anybody who could beat you laying brick?"

"Yes," said Pat, "but I never let him do it!"

"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord—"

—Romans 12:10-11.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the early autumn of the year nineteen hundred and thirty-eight a group of eager, yet somewhat bewildered students came upon the threshold of a new world. The door to higher education had been opened and at last we were in college—long awaited and long hoped for.

We had nothing to fear in the first milestone at Lenoir Rhyne College because we were guided and advised by a very understanding and sympathetic faculty and led by a very capable president, David Conrad. It was then that we chose our class colors—green and gold, their significance lying in the fact that we were "green" upon our entrance and were to be "ripe" or "golden" as the wheat upon our graduation. This, along with the college motto: "The truth shall make you free," became our aim.

The second milestone was reached at the end of our sophomore year—a year full of work and fun. Led by Karl Barger, our class increased its treasury through the sale of freshmen caps, entertained the new students at an informal party, and was in full swing with campus life, taking part in many organizations—religious, social, and cultural.

Now for greater conquests. As juniors we knew that we should be going on beyond the halfway mark toward our aim. We were beginning to ripen. With Ralph Gurley leading us, our class presented Campus Capers, sponsored social affairs, and prospered from the sales made in the junior store. The great climax of the year came with the junior-senior banquet at Hotel Hickory. The Reverend Harry Althouse was main speaker for the banquet and Mr. Luther Boliek, a Lenoir Rhyne alumnus, was toastmaster. Shirley Smith of Winston-Salem played for the dance which was climaxed by the rendition of our college song, "Fair Star of Caroline," by the orchestra.

Our senior year saw the completion of the new dormitory for girls and the planning of a new library. Lenoir Rhyne was growing and we hoped that we had played a small part in her growth. We turned again to our first president, David Conrad, to lead us over the last mile.

Looking back over these four years we realize that mistakes have been made. Some have dropped out of the race; others have joined along the way. We hope that our accomplishments will be lasting and that we have reached the goal we've striven for. We pray now for strength and courage to make all our dreams into deeds and to withstand the storm now facing us.

THE 1942 HACAWA of LENOIR RHYNE COLLEGE

The 1942 HACAWA accepts with pleasure its obligation and privilege of preserving a pictorial record of the year. We have attempted to gather all sorts of material in these pages which will recall to many of us the things we did while here. We have tried to be informal in getting a rather intimate pictorial record of our activities.

Our aim has been to make this a student's book—one that each of you can feel is truly representative. As the time for its publication nears we of the staff are filled with trepidation.

CONNOLLY GAMBLE, JR., Editor

We hope that you will get from this edition of the HACAWA the enjoyment that we have worked for, and that we have gotten from our work.

THE LENOIR RHYNEAN OF NINETEEN

I am the voice of the youth of 1942.

I am radical. I am conservative. I am narrow. I am tolerant. I am serious. I don't care. I am humorous. I am satirical. I am well-informed. I am ignorant. I am an idealist. I am cynical. I am critical. I am criticized. I question authority. I demand to know the "why" behind everything.

They laugh and say I am a fool. But I think for myself. They scoff and say I will learn. I point to the world they have never learned to govern. They call me inconsistent and I call them inconsistent. We misunderstand each other. We call each other names. I believe my truth and they believe their truth. They try to tell me what to say. I refuse to listen.

I am the voice of the student of Lenoir Rhyne.

I speak for the minister, the teacher, the engineer, the musician, the soldier, the doctor, the dentist, the housewife—the world—of the future.

My ancestry is English, Dutch, Irish, Norwegian, German, Italian, French, Spanish.

I have been influenced by Aristotle, by Lippmann, by Shakespeare, by Sandburg, by Luther, by Fosdick, by Pegler, by Hemingway, by Winchell.

I am the Lenoir Rhynean. Volume XXXI.

The local chapter is known as the North Carolina Delta. Lenoir Rhyne speakers, however, had been admitted since 1928 to the general chapter of this, the largest forensic honor society in America.

The Provincial Convention and Tournament was held at Alabama College, Montevallo, Alabama, April 3-4, 1941. The local chapter, represented by five members, made the best record of the eighteen chapters represented.

INTERCOLLEGIATE FORENSICS

The forensic season of 1940-1941 continued the outstanding record of former years.

The debate question was "Resolved, that the nations of the Western Hemisphere should enter into a permanent union." At the Dixie Tournament, Winthrop College, December 5-7, 1940, the teams composed of Paul Monroe and Marshall Mauney, affirmative, Gerald Plaster and Connolly Gamble, negative, Helen Jones and Mary Beth Kuhn, affirmative, each won four and lost two debates; Betty Grothe and Alda Gregory, negative, winning three and losing three debates. John Mangum and Marshall Mauney won rounds in extempore; Connolly Gamble placed second in the finals in problem solving, while Alda Gregory became Dixie Champion extempore speaker of senior college women. Over thirty schools participated.

In the Appalachian Mountain Tournament, February 6-8, 1941, Alda Gregory placed first in impromptu, Mary Beth Kuhn and Marshall Mauney each winning second place in after dinner speaking for women and men. Mary Beth Kuhn placed first among senior women in standard debating, Alda Gregory tying for second place in direct clash debating.

The college ranked first in the South Atlantic and Southeastern tournaments held in Hickory, March 6-8, under the directorship of Dr. Albert Keiser. The women's teams, Betty Grothe and Mary Beth Kuhn, affirmative, and Alda Gregory and Mary Beth Kuhn, negative, won all their six debates and became South Atlantic Women Debate Champions; while the men, Edgar Cooper, Connolly Gamble and Marshall Mauney, won five and lost three debates. Of individual contests Lenoir Rhyne won nine firsts out of a possible twenty-one, namely: Connolly Gamble and Alda Gregory, problem solving; Charles Wessinger, stimulating group discussion; Betty Grothe, extempore; Marshall Mauney, after dinner; Alda Gregory, radio newscast and radio extempore; Wilfred Hahn, address reading; and Betty Story, radio poetry reading. Marshall Mauney also won second place and $30 in the N. C. Peace contest March 7.

Dr. Albert Keiser was re-elected executive secretary-treasurer of the N. C. Intercollegiate Forensic Association and director of the tournament, as also executive secretary-treasurer of the N. C. Association of Teachers of Speech, remaining state chairman of the N. C. Intercollegiate Peace Association.

The local Pi Kappa Delta chapter ranked highest among the eighteen schools represented at the Provincial tournament at Alabama College April 3-4, winning five medals out of a possible twenty. Alda Gregory and Mary Beth Kuhn, upholding both sides, became women's debate champions by winning seven out of eight; the men, Marshall Mauney and Connolly Gamble, breaking even. Thus the teams won thirty-seven out of fifty-four debates during the year. In impromptu speaking, Alda Gregory placed first, in oratory second, while Mary Beth Kuhn was second in extempore.

On April 9 the last of the twenty-three non-decision debates was held with the two women's champions meeting Susquehanna University at Hickory.

The very heart of the college dramatics, Alpha Psi Omega is a national honorary dramatic fraternity. For years the fraternity has been the "executive branch" of the Playmakers with its primary purpose to stimulate interest in dramatics at Lenoir Rhyne College.

Besides its yearly award for the best original play, the organization sponsors a large program of contests to promote dramatic activity.

The Religious Council is composed of the officers of the religious organizations on the campus. It sponsors a Student Vesper service once each month in St. Andrew's Lutheran Church. During the week of January 26, with the coöperation of the college administration and the St. Andrew's congregation, the Council inaugurated Religious Emphasis week at Lenoir Rhyne. The Rev. Walter B. Freed, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wilmington, was the speaker at each service. His inspiring messages and devotional thoughts will remain for many months with all who heard them.

The Council serves as an advisory body to the religious groups, coördinating the efforts of Christian students and helping each member organization to fulfill its aims.

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING PROGRAM

More than 150 students have received flight training in the three years that the Civilian Pilot Training Program has been provided at Lenoir Rhyne College by the Federal Government. Many of these young men have continued their training in the Army Air Corps and the Naval Air Service. Four men who have won their wings after receiving training here are pictured below.

The ground school faculty is composed of Dr. Karl Z. Morgan, Prof. M. C. Yoder and Dr. S. J. Marion. Dr. Morgan is instructor in navigation, aircraft maintenance and flight regulations. Prof. Yoder teaches meteorology and Dr. Marion is coordinator.

Flight training in both the elementary and secondary courses is given at the Hickory Municipal Airport.

ATHLETICS AT LENOIR RHYNE

Football, basketball, baseball and tennis are the four major intercollegiate sports sponsored by Lenoir Rhyne College. Director of the athletic program is Coach R. M. ("Pat") Shores, who has as his assistant Clarence P. Stasavich. Coach Shores is head coach of football, basketball and baseball and "Stas" aids as line coach of football, freshman basketball coach, tennis coach and director of the intramural athletic program.

This year for the first time was begun a project of physical development which includes every male student. Calisthenics and sports which require muscular coördination have been provided for all boys.

Intramural football, basketball and softball were again supported enthusiastically by the four classes. The Juniors took the Intramural Football Championship for the third consecutive year, and the veteran Senior Basketbatters took the court crown for the fourth time.

Athletes who earned letters in one of the major sports and managers of these sports are members of the Lettermen's Club, pictured below. The club seeks to foster sportsmanship in all athletic events.

Head Coach R. M. "PAT" SHORES
Assistant Coach CLARENCE P. STASAVICH

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

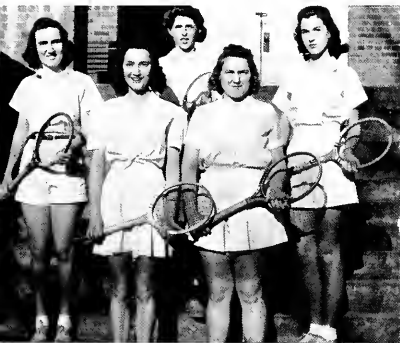

An adequate sports program for the girls of Lenoir Rhyne has been provided this year under the leadership of Miss Margaret Weeks, director of girls' athletics, and Helen Drumm, president of the Girls' Athletic Association.

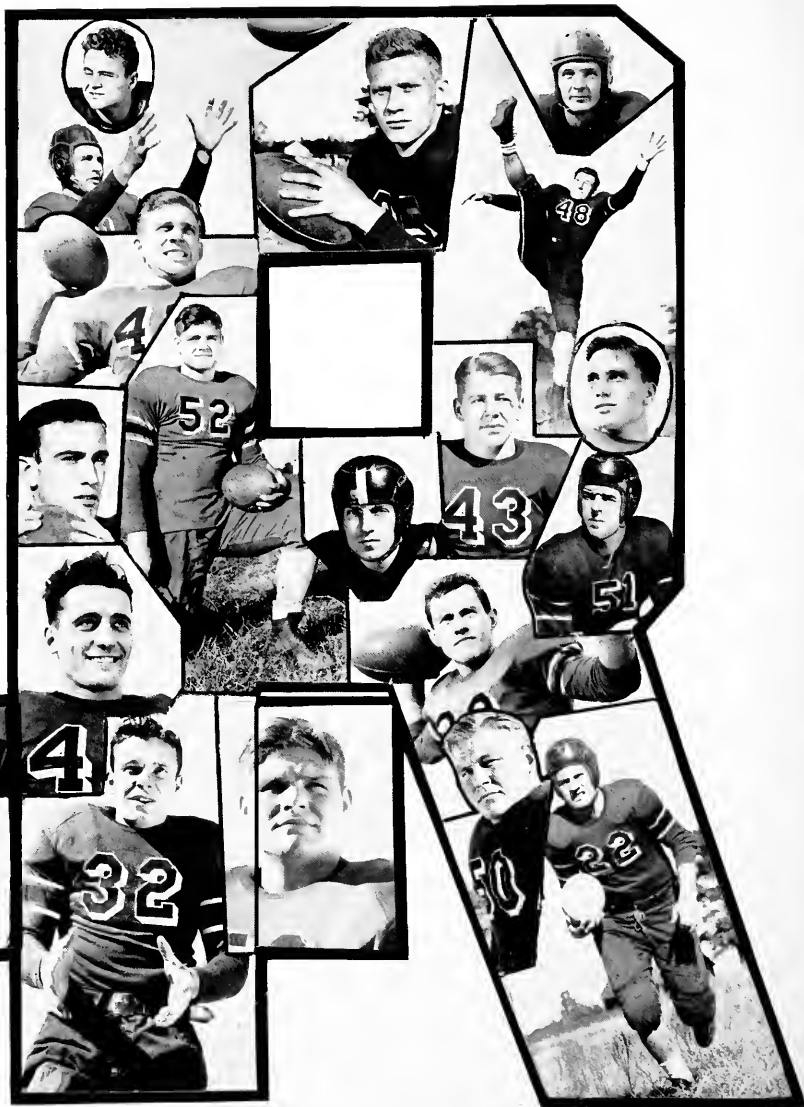

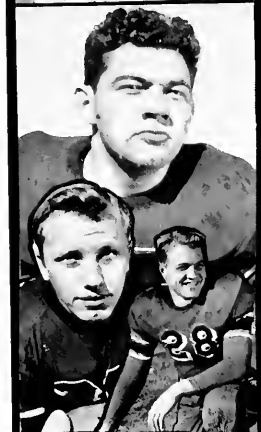

Archery, soccer, tennis, basketball, softball and horseback-riding are some of the sports in which girls have taken part during the year.

The girls participated in the intramural basketball games, each class being represented by a team of girls as well as a team of boys.

FOOTBALL 1941

The Bears inaugurated the 1941 season with an invasion of the University of North Carolina, and although Lenoir Rhyne lost by five touchdowns, the Bruins gave the Tar Heels such a fright that they didn't recover all season.

With three conference victories and three defeats, Lenoir Rhyne had a fairly successful gridiron season. Downed by the Elon Christians, the Bears redeemed themselves with their second consecutive slaughter of the powerful Appalachian Mountaineers. One of the surprises of the season came in the victory of the indomitable Newberry Indians, who won over the highly-favored Bruins 13 to 9.

The Catawba Indians, perennial rivals of the Bears, continued their year's triumphant sweep of the North State Conference, passing their way to a two-touchdown win in the Thanksgiving classic.

FOOTBALL

This season, possibly the last of intercollegiate football for several years, brought out the gridiron talents of many potential stars.

Little Chunk Rudisill demonstrated to thousands at the Carolina opener that he was one of the swiftest backs in the state by scooting 70 yards for Lenoir Rhyne's only tally. Freshman Gus Herald stepped into the plunging back spot vacated by Arndt.

The forward wall was strong this year as newcomer Wade Osborne and veteran Orus Johnson showed promise of filling in for Seniors Madison Conrad and Hugh Mashburn. Frank Barger, brother of the 210-pound Bear center, developed into a fine running mate for Ernest Osborne at guard.

Pass receivers were scarce but veteran Troy Washam was ably supported by "Juice" McCall and "Long-Jawn" DeMarcus.

FOOTBALL

At the annual football banquet Madison Conrad was awarded a trophy as most valuable player. Captain Conrad has been a regular for three years and one of the state's outstanding tackles.

Hugh Mashburn, also a Senior, was given the Sportsmanship trophy and the other Seniors, Phil Daubert and Blaine Dellinger, received recognition in the form of sweaters.

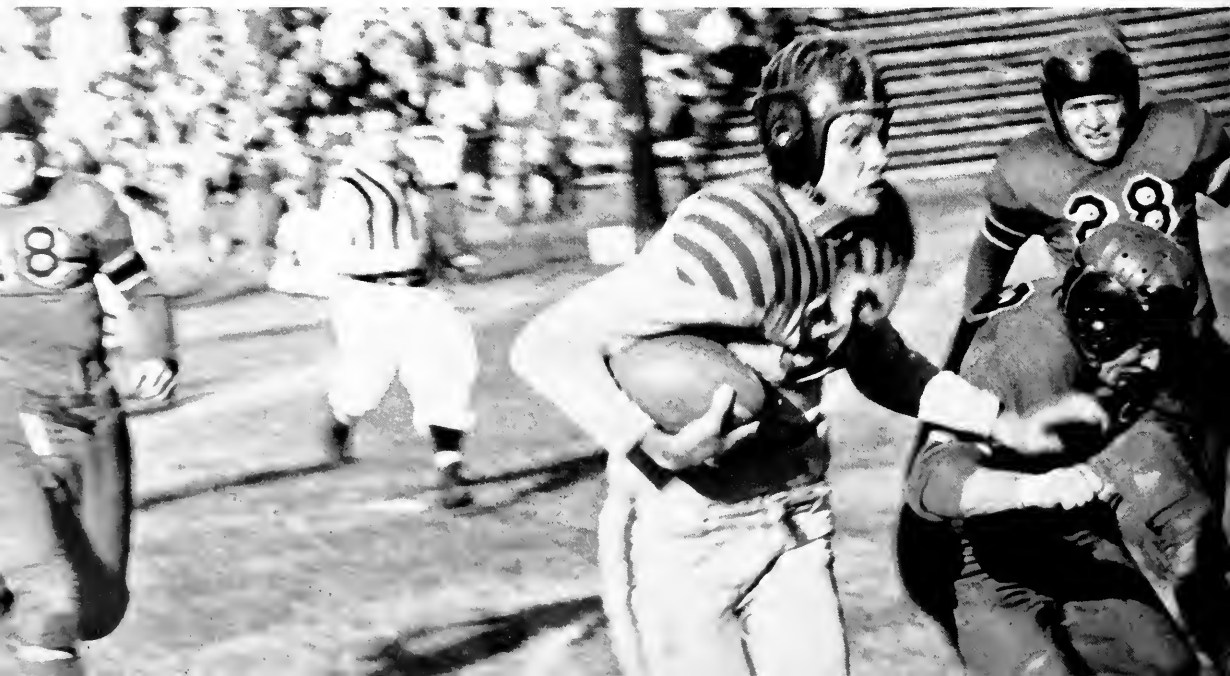

The close of the 1941 season ended the playing careers of the undergraduate gridmen as well as those of the Seniors, for the Board of Trustees ruled that the intercollegiate sports program of Lenoir Rhyne is to be discontinued for the duration of the war, beginning in the Fall of 1942.

BASKETBALL 1941-1942

GURLEY

From the win-loss angle the 1941 hoop season cannot be termed a success, but the Bears have learned to appreciate a well-fought game fully as much as a victory during the last few unfortunate seasons. In conference play they chalked up six wins against eight losses: three victories with two losses went down on the record in non-conference games.

The Bruins improved steadily throughout their twenty-game schedule, winning three out of four of their last games of the season.

One of the highlights was the Elon tussle which ended 44-43 in favor of the Christians. In the post-season tournament at High Point College Lenoir Rhyne was paired with the leading High Point Panthers, who eliminated the Bears early in the tournament.

Hugh Mashburn, tall powerful center, established a nine-year scoring record for the locals, ringing up 223 points during the season.

BASEBALL 1941

Winning only six out of eighteen encounters during the season, the Bears had a rather unsuccessful baseball season, slipping still further down from the championship which Lenoir Rhyne won in 1939 and for which she made a strong bid in 1940. The fortunes which fell to the lot of the Shoremen in their opening double-header with the Newberry Indians—two defeats—seemed to stick with them throughout the season.

Some of the games were close—and some were not. The Bruins suffered from a weak pitching department and hitting slumps were prevalent, but at times they showed great potentialities. The locals trimmed Guilford and Appalachian twice each and won once over Atlantic Christian and High Point.

COACH SHORES IN DUGOUT

Catawba broke an eight-year jinx in beating Lenoir Rhyne in the Easter classic 8 runs to 7.

Baine Sisk, Fred McCall, Southpaw John Cline and Captain Austin Russell bore the brunt of the pitching duties with Rudisill and Wendland being called to the mound occasionally from their positions at third and first base respectively.

Noah Hamrick led the Bruin hitting with an average of .379, followed by Rudisill with .340. The hitting average for the Bear team was .247.

Graduation and military service sliced the roster of the 1942 baseball squad, taking veterans Johnny Lingle, Johnny Cline, Noah Hamrick, Austin Russell, Baine Sisk and Burton Barger from the Bears.

TENNIS

For the third consecutive year the Lenoir Rhyne tennis team wound up the season in the second position in the North State Conference, ranking just behind the Guilford Quakers.

Captained by Senior Leslie Conrad, the Bruins met a short, stiff schedule and came out on the long end with only three matches lost compared with seven victories. Losses were marked up in the Clemson and in both Guilford encounters.

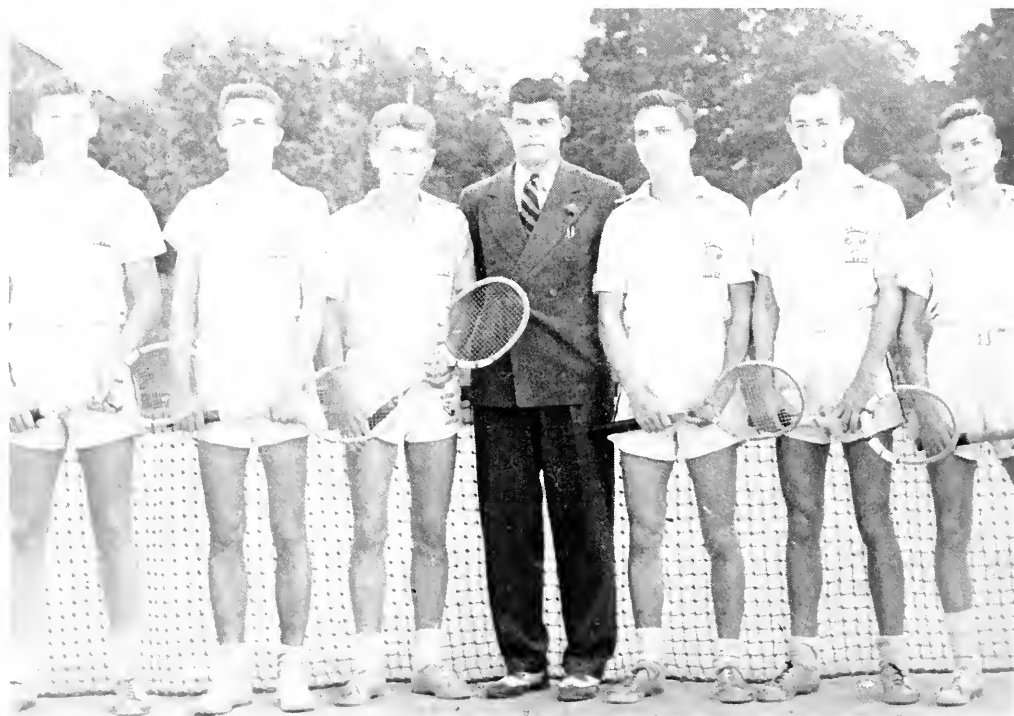

The squad was led again this year by the brilliant Jay Shepherd, number one player from Greensboro, who chalked up seven wins against two losses. Ralph Gurley, taking five of his matches and dropping one, had the best individual average for the season.

Graduation took two of the stars of the Lenoir Rhyne squad—Wilfred Hahn, mainstay in the number two position, and Captain Leslie Conrad.

Several scheduled matches were rained out, cutting the season down to ten encounters.

THIS YEAR WE SAW THE LAST INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS.. FOR A WHILE

This year closes a chapter of Lenoir Rhyne intercollegiate athletic history. For the duration we must do without many of those things which make a college year what it is.

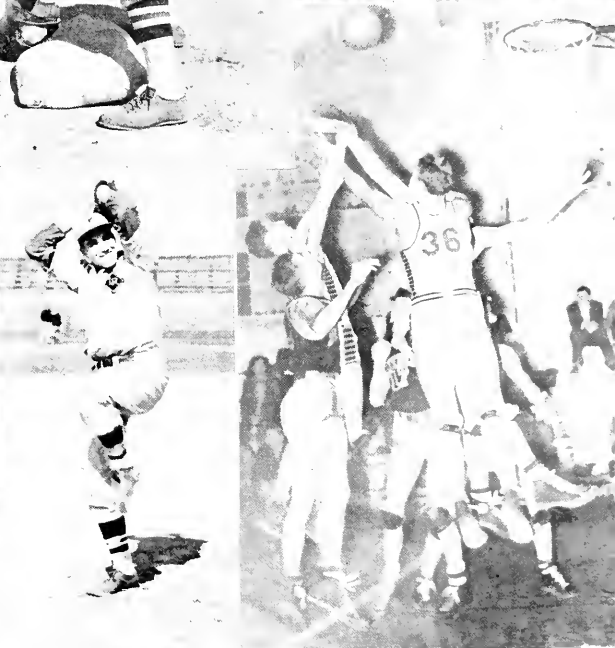

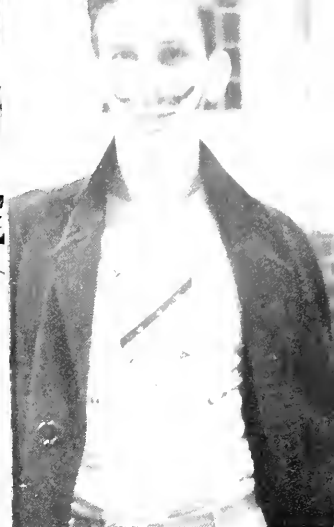

We bid farewell and Godspeed to our coaching staff — "Pat" Shores, Clarence Stasavich and Dave Hodgson; we wish the best of luck to those players, past and present, entering the service and we feel sorry only for the opposition wherever they are.

Homecomings, Thanksgiving Day with Catawba, basketball tournaments, Easter Monday baseball, and tennis with Guilford—these events must remain as memories until battles return to the playing fields under the rules of good sportsmanship and fair play.

Meanwhile, intramurals will take a new place in our program and heroes will arise from the unheralded ranks of amateurs.

But we can rejoice and be glad — our tennis team has at last licked the Quakers! And the 1942 Bear baseball team shows signs of taking the North State Conference crown!

With the crowning of Miss Ruth Aderholdt as May Queen, the 1941 May Day Festival began, presenting as entertainment for the queen a semi-centennial pageant of the history of Lenoir Rhyne College, 1891-1941. Colorful scenes portrayed the growth of Lenoir Rhyne from its founding down to the present—from "Vision" to "Victory." Symbolic dances by members of the class depicted "Faith," "Zeal," "Steadfastness," "Endurance," "Confidence" and "Victory." Mrs. Pearl Setzer Deal was director of the pageant with Miss Margaret Weeks in charge of the dances.
